

Discuss the statement: "my choices determine my direction" with family members. What is their plan when faced with a decision when you are not with them? Remind family members to think about what their choices are and decide which one result in obedience to God. Do a role-play with a recent situation or offer scenarios where your child can practice making wise choices.

EXPLORE TOGETHER:

I will turn to the source of wisdom to help me make choices that lead me in the right direction.
