*Always prepare for the conditions with appropriate clothing, footwear, and gear. We hike as a group and take frequent rest breaks but each person should do their own research to determine if the hike is within their ability. Your preparation is key to our success as a group.

A trail map will be emailed to those who sign up.

If the hike is cancelled due to weather or unforeseen circumstances, those who signed up will be emailed in advance. At latest, the evening before or the morning of the hike. Check your email before heading out.

We only wait 15 minutes for latecomers. There is often no cell service in these areas to convey messages so it is important to arrive on time.
