

Geotechnical Engineering Investigation and Studies

Multi-Lynx Companies, Inc. provides services for foundation engineering design and structural distress analysis. Other services include subsurface investigation, stability analyses, and geotechnical site instrumentation services.

Multi-Lynx personnel are experienced in all facets of embankment and slope stability analyses, soil-structure interaction, and soil mechanics.

Test Pit Investigation

Installation of Foundation Mat and Base Course

Overexcavation of Unsuitable Material

