The Trustees have a general responsibility to ensure that the church property is maintained and that the business affairs of the church are properly carried out. In addition, the council also administers the insurance coverage of the church property, and it manages the church investment portfolio, the Legacy Fund.

At a joint meeting with the Church Council in September, the Trustees reported that the Legacy Fund was valued at approximately $100,000. With the approval of the Stewardship Committee and the Church Council, the interest from the Legacy Fund for 2021 was reinvested.
