Selected Quotes from Eamon de Valera

Eamon de Valera was a veteran of the Easter Rising in 1916 and a participant and controversial figure during the War of Independence and the Irish Civil War. Born in New York City, de Valera held dual citizenship and would eventually become Ireland's third president. Please enjoy the following selected quotes from this famous figure of Irish history.

"Partition is after all only an old fortress of crumbled masonry - held together with the plaster of fiction"

"If war comes upon us, it will come as a thief in the night"

"I am against this Treaty not because I am a man of war but because I am a man of peace. I am against this Treaty because it will not end the centuries of conflict between the two nations of Great Britain and Ireland"

"From the moment this war began, there was, for this state, only one policy possible, neutrality. Our circumstances, our history, the incompleteness of our national freedom through the partition of our country, made any other policy impossible"

"For Irishmen, there is no football game to match rugby and if all our young men played rugby not only would we beat England and Wales but France and the whole lot of them put together"

"I can't see my way to becoming Patron of the Michael Collins Foundation. It's my considered opinion that in the fullness of time history will record the greatness of Collins and it will be recorded at my expense"

"England pretends it is not by the naked sword, but by the good will of the people of the country that she is here. We will draw the naked sword to make her bare her own naked sword"

"The Taoiseach has mentioned two cherished aims which have not yet been realised - the unity of our country and the restoration of our language"

"In a world at war, each set of belligerents is over ready to regard those who are not with them as against them"

"I never met an Irishman or Irishwoman abroad, who was not proud to lay claim to this island, to say that they were Irishmen or Irishwomen"

"There is a unity imposed upon us whether we like it or not. We are all inhabitants of this glorious little island"

"The Ireland that we dreamed of, would be of a people living the life that God desires that men should live"

"We have an importance far beyond our size, of our territory or the numbers of our people"

"It is indeed hard for the strong to be just to the weak but acting justly always has its rewards"

"Nature never intended me to be a partisan leader"

"The founders of the Gaelic League similarly inspired and moved the people of their day"

"All history is man's efforts to realise ideals"

IRISH CULTURAL CENTER CONSTRUCTION

The ICCHV building project keeps moving forward.

We have received the permit drawings and are working to get these up dated and get our permit. As everyone, knows it has been a long struggle to get to this point. In addition, costs for the construction have increased significantly since our initial designs were costed.

We need to organize a building construction-fund raising committee that will augment the grant funds so we can complete the building. Please let us know if you can help on this committee.

Stay tuned exciting times are coming.

Gaelic Classes conducted by our own Bob McDonald are ongoing online.

Trad Sessions continue at the Ole Savannah the first Sunday of each Month with Terry McCann and Steven Gara. Come on down and bring your instrument and join in.

Check out the ICCHV website ICCHV.ORG We hope you will participate in this year's Summer Series and support our loyal sponsors.

Thank you.

Keep Moving Forward!!

NEXT MEETING

Off for the Summer

HAPPY SUMMER! To kick off the summer, our last meeting was a picnic at Sue Feeney's home. The weather was gorgeous, the food delicious, the setting beautiful, the atmosphere fun and upbeat, and the company the best! We celebrated Fr. Kearney's and Fr. Bill's birthdays with cake and ice cream sundaes! We always love it when they join us! Thank you, Chrissie Wrixon and Pam Boyle, for organizing this wonderful event and the others who helped set up and clean up and those who brought snacks. Thank you, Sue, for inviting us to your home and all you did to make this event so successful and relaxing! The tickets for the 20-week club are available. (Some were distributed at the picnic). The first drawing will take place on July 25. The last drawing is December 5. Members should call Patti Gilpatric at 845-399-6191; Ginger Mills at 845-430-7301; Patty Boyle-Jacob at 845-594-6594; Chrissie Wrixon at 845-901-1191 or Pam Boyle at 845-901-1465 for tickets, if you did not receive a phone call (Every member should have been called) or if you want additional tickets. Patti will be the "spin queen" again this year! If you haven't been a "spinner" in the past or want to be one again, all are welcome! Spinning times and places will be announced each week. Please call or e-mail Patti (pattgilpatric@gmail.com) if you want to be a spinner any time during the twenty weeks. It's fun, it's safe, it's easy, and who knows, you might spin your own name! This is our major fundraiser of the year, so please buy/sell tickets if you can. Checks and ticket stubs should be mailed to the LAOH, PO Box 2432, Kingston, NY 12402. Our fall fundraiser is a lasagna dinner (take out) on October 1 at the VFW on East Chester Street. The price is $15. Tickets can be purchased from Chrissie Wrixon, Pam Boyle, Patty Boyle Jacob, or Ginger Mills (all phone numbers above). The drive-through lasagna dinner has always been a very successful endeavor! Mark your calendars, and tell your relatives and friends it's a "no cook" night! We need another person to co-chair the Hooley with Chrissie Wrixon, so think about that possibility! It is coming fast, and we plan to go full speed ahead after our absence last year. As always, we need many hands-on deck. More information will be forthcoming! The Hooley has always been a fun-filled, spirited time of pride for all our members. WE NEED VOLUNTEERS! If you have questions or concerns about any issue, contact Patty Boyle-Jacob (pajacob1@yahoo.com). Please remember those who could use some prayers: Ethel Navarra, Lorraine Wagner, Eleanor Ayres and Kathleen Houghtaling (Ten Broeck Commons) Joan Egan and Father Burke (Woodland Ponds, New Paltz). Please notify Judy Mathews (judymath4@yahoo.com or 338-1618) if you want us to pray for you or a loved one or if you know a member, relative of a member or a friend of the LAOH you think should receive a card of some type. Have a happy, safe, healthy and carefree summer. Pray that many will turn back to God and pray for PEACE in every way in our world and our country! Remember that July 4 is the Birthday of our Country! GOD BLESS AMERICA!

Cinnamon Toast Crunch™ Sandwich Cookies

by Betty Crocker Kitchens

Treat your family to crisp sandwich cookies filled with creamy Cinnadust™ studded frosting. This Cinnamon Toast Crunch™ cookie recipe is made all the more decadent by white vanilla baking chips and Cinnamon Toast Crunch™ Frosting. And it only takes 20 minutes to prep!

Ingredients

- 1 cup Cinnamon Toast Crunch™ Cereal
- 1 pouch (12.6 oz) Betty Crocker™ Cinnamon Toast Crunch™ Cookie Mix
- ½ cup butter, softened
- 1 egg
- ½ cup white vanilla baking chips
- 1 ¼ cups from 1 tub (16 oz) Betty Crocker™ Cinnamon Toast Crunch™ Frosting

Steps

- 1 Heat oven to 350°F. Place cereal in 1-quart resealable food-storage plastic bag. Using flat bottom of measuring cup, coarsely crush cereal. Set aside.

- 2 In medium bowl, stir cookie mix, softened butter and egg until soft dough forms. Stir in crushed cereal and white vanilla baking chips. Drop dough by rounded measuring tablespoonfuls 2 1/2 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets.

- 3 Bake 9 to 11 minutes or until edges are set and golden brown (centers will be soft). Cool 2 minutes before removing from cookie sheet to cooling rack. Cool completely, about 30 minutes.

- 4 For each sandwich cookie, spread generous tablespoonful frosting on bottom of 1 cookie. Top with second cookie, bottom side down; gently press together. Store covered in airtight container with waxed paper between layers.
