2024 Hooley on the Hudson scheduled for September 1st

Kingston, NY - The Ancient Order of Hibernians, Fr. Con Colbert Woulfe Division 1, Ulster County would like to announce that the 23rd annual Hooley on the Hudson has been scheduled for Sunday, September 1st 11:30am-9:00pm at the T.R. Gallo Memorial Park at the Kingston Rondout. An opening ceremony will commence at 11:30am with a Parade of Dignitaries led by the Ulster County AOH Pipes and Drum Band. As a result of continued support by community sponsors, admission to the Hooley on the Hudson remains free. Free shuttles will also be running throughout the day to help attendees get to the Festival.

Highlights of the Hooley include three stages of music, food & craft vendors, and family activities throughout the day. The schedule of performers include the Ulster AOH Pipe & Drum Band, Sheridan Ruitin, The Little Creek Band, Derek Warfield and the Young Wolfe Tones, Celtic Heels, McGroovin', Willie Lynch Band, Andy Cooney and His Band, Farrell School of Irish Dance, The TMcCann Band, and many more. A full performance schedule can be found at hooleyonthehudson.com.

The Hooley planning committee is still accepting vendor applications and encourages all who are interested to visit the Vendor Resources page of their website.

Families are encouraged to attend the Hooley and enjoy Irish cultural music and activities Play Haven will also be providing a family respite and sensory safe space from 11am-5pm. There, families can enjoy creative toys, crafts, baby changing tables, activities, friendly staff, and air conditioning.

For Festival updates, follow @hooleyonthehudson on Facebook and Instagram. Proceeds from the Hooley are donated to the Irish Cultural Center of the Hudson Valley, the Food Bank of the Hudson Valley, and other local nonprofit organizations.
