First Reading (Isaiah 45:1, 4-6)

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading (Thessalonians 1:1-5B)

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel (Matthew 22:15-21)

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone’s opinion, for you do not regard a person’s status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?” Knowing their malice, Jesus said, “Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax.” Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, “Whose image is this and whose inscription?” They replied, “Caesar’s.” At that he said to them, “Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Combined Christmas Giving

Because of Covid restrictions, Combined Christmas Giving plans to have all it’s packages out by November 7th. We are still accepting hats, mitten, scarves, gloves, or pajamas. We have placed a box at the back of the church where donations can be left. We are also accepting monetary donations that can be placed in the collection basket.

The Friends of Nora’s Home will be having their annual Fall Flea Market on Saturday, October 31st from 9:00 AM till 1:00PM at the Gaul Centre (5310 Union Hwy.) All proceeds will go to St. Leonard’s Church to offset the heating bills this winter (Monetary donations would also be accepted). There will be plenty of items, including many Christmas decorations and many beautiful items that would make great gifts! We will also have a 50/50 draw. Covid-19 restrictions will be in place. Masks will be mandatory, as well as social distancing, and staggered entrance to limit capacity.
