

Have family members to write or draw a picture of something for which they are thankful and have a time of sharing with each other. Place paper and colored pencils, for family members to write or draw something for which they are thankful for each day this week. Have them place their paper in a basket or bowl. At the end of the week, have a special time of sharing moments of gratitude with each other. End with prayer thanking God for His goodness.

EXPLORE TOGETHER:

TODAY ADVENTURE KIDS LEARNED:
True contentment only comes from God.

NEXT STEP:
Choose to keep my focus on contentment, not circumstance.

FAMILY THEME:
Contentment in Christ

SCRIPTURE:
Corinthians 7:1-40

FIELD NOTES

BIBLE BASICS:

With your family, review Colossians 3:17

PROPERTY OF:

Avoid Satan's TRAP and Choose God's Way

The T happens when you are not thankful and all you want is more.

Focus on what you have and choose to be content (Colossians 3:17).

The R is refusing to rejoice and not have joy.
Choose God's joy (Philippians 4:4).

The A is being anxious when we should not be.
God tells you not to worry (Philippians 4:6).

The P is forgetting to pray.
You can talk to God about anything (Philippians 4:6).

Avoid Satan's TRAP and Choose God's Way

The T happens when you are not thankful and all you want is more. Focus on what you have and choose to be content (Colossians 3:17).

Write or draw something for which you are thankful.

The R is refusing to rejoice and not have joy. Choose God's joy (Philippians 4:4).

Write about a situation you are happy about.

The A is being anxious when we should not be. God tells you not to worry (Philippians 4:6).

Write about a situation that causes you anxiety.

The P is forgetting to pray. You can talk to God about anything (Philippians 4:6).

Write a prayer asking God to help in that situation.

