

Pretend you are the Israelites and it is time to leave. Have family members think about what two items they would have taken with them. Share with other members what those items are and why you chose them. Talk about what emotions the Israelites might have been feeling while preparing to leave Egypt.

The Israelites put the blood of a lamb on the doorframes so death would “pass over” their homes. Color the doorframe red.

Jesus’ death on the cross and His resurrection saved us from eternal death. Trace the cross and then color it.
