To The People of Cordova Bay United Church,

A big thank you for your prayers, thoughts, cards, email, texts, soup and phone calls over the past week with the loss of my brother.

Those prayers have helped carry me through a difficult and challenging time. I so appreciated your kindness and support throughout the year, but especially during this time.

Collectively, our church people have had a tremendous amount of loss this past year. I thank God, that we have a strong and caring congregation to be there when we need it most.

Thanks again.

Blessings,

Pastor Beth

Ethel Wilson Women's Group Tuesday, February 24

The Ethel Wilson Women's Group will be meeting Tuesday February 24th, 1:30 in the Sanctuary. Kazia Mullin, Director of Programs for Bridges for Women will be speaking on Bridges: past, present, and future.

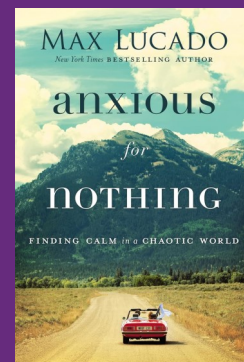

Bridges for Women has been an important change-maker in the lives of women survivors of trauma, abuse and neglect since 1988. We provide the impetus towards breaking cycles of abuse, re-igniting hope, re-building identity after trauma, creating safety and stability, and sparking a passion for education and career possibilities that sends ripples through families, communities, and beyond. We are currently in a new location and re-emerging after the changes, challenges, and confines of the pandemic.

Lenten Book Study begins this Wednesday

Mark the date! This year's Lenten Book Study will begin this Wednesday, February 25th at 10:00 am and run for 6 weeks. The book for this year's study is entitled: Anxious For Nothing Finding Calm in a Chaotic World by Max Lucado.

There are still copies available in the office. Please see Jane to sign up for the book study and to get a copy.

Looking forward to gathering with you all again.
