

What Do You See?

AOA

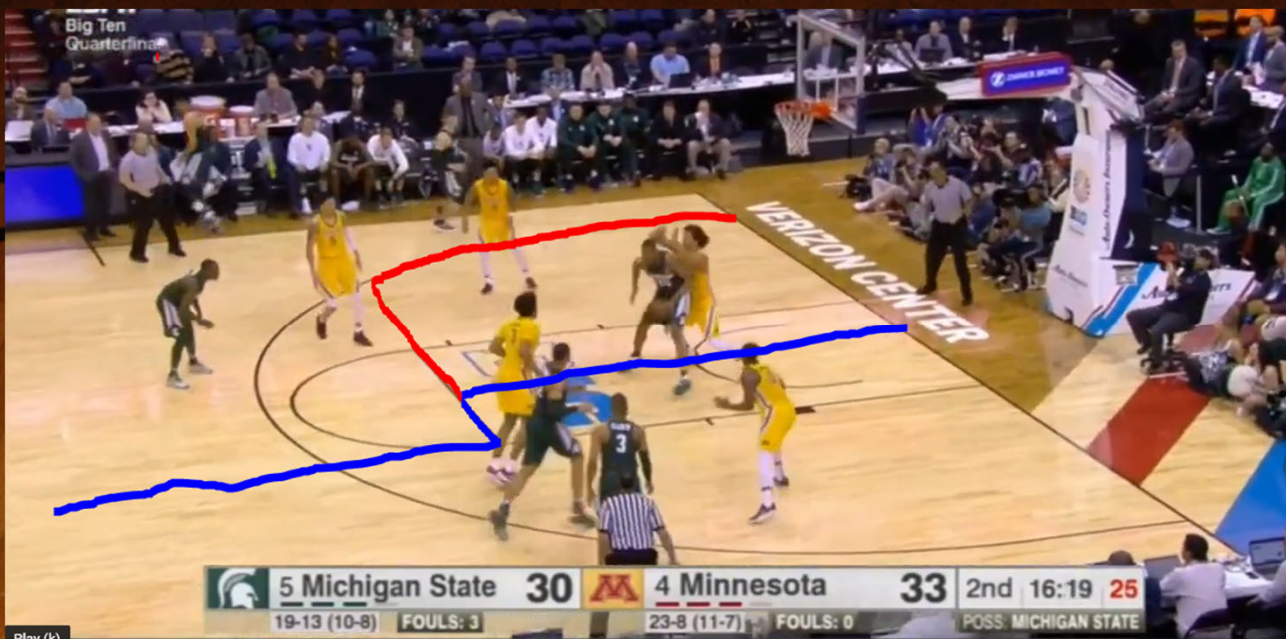

October 20, 2022

Where are you looking?

- Know your primary area of coverage.
- 2-person
- 3-person

Where are you looking?

- Know your primary area of coverage.
- 3-person
- Can still use Lead & Trail to learn 2-person
- TV games, but NFHS rules

Lead Position: Is there a foul on the play?

Trail Position: 2 Plays of fake fouls

Center Position: Travel or screen foul?

Lead & Trail: Traveling in the lane

Lead & Trail: Jump stop in the lane

Trail & Center: 2 Plays with traveling

Lead: Rough post play

Center: Shooting foul?

Trail: Shooting foul?

Lead and Center: Free throw rebounding

Center and Lead: Rebounding

Center and Lead: Rebounding

Last one. Stay and help your partner.

A photograph of a wooden floor with a black curved line. The text "That's all folks..." is written in white on the floor. Below it, the text "Good luck!" is also written in white. The floor is made of light-colored wood planks. The black line is a thick, curved stroke that spans across the width of the image, curving downwards in the center.

That's all folks...

Good luck!

Add a Slide Title - 3

