Dear Memorialist,

On behalf of my Salem Stones team, I take great pride in reaching out to you through this 2017 product catalog. Eleven years ago, a simple conversation with a high school friend sparked my curiosity to learn more about monuments. The result was Salem Stones.

In all these years, our employees and I have come to fully understand the emotions involved and peace of mind desired when making memorial decisions. By listening carefully, we're able to apply our capabilities and resources, so that you are able to exceed the expectations of the families you serve.

While I am excited to mention our new large facilities in Ohio and Elberton with increased inventory, the focus will continue to be on our relationships. Our relationships with our suppliers, our customers, as well as your relationships with the families you serve.

I assure you that Salem Stones will always strive to be your trusted partner of granite memorials that delivers reliable, customized memorials of exceptional quality.

Truthfully,

Lenin Kailasammani,
Owner / CEO

CLAY MODELS

Sometimes a detailed design requires more than just a drawing. For those design, we are able to provide a clay model of your design for a small fee. Production of the unit will begin once the design is approved. This is a great way to ensure a complicated design is done right the first time, and without much delay. Talk to your sales representative about getting a clay model for your next custom order.

CUSTOM WALK-IN MAUSOLEUMS

Purchasing a walk-in mausoleum is a big investment. We do everything we can to make the process as effortless as possible on your end. When you order a custom Mausoleum with Salem Stones, you're getting more than just the granite. Shipping, assembly, bronze door, and stained glass windows are all included in your price. Once the mausoleum is produced we will send our team to assemble your unit on site. Units are shipped on a flat bed truck, and a crane is required on site for assembly.

SERVICES

Salem Stones offers more than just granite memorials. We offer a number of services to help you sell our products as well. Our Salem Select Design Tool allows you to design and order a monument with the family by your side. We also offer sandblast and laser etching to complete your memorial. See how easy it is to work with Salem Stones.
