

LOBSTER SUPPER

Thank you to everyone who supported our Lobster Supper by purchasing lobster and ham dinners. Over 350 lobster and 60 ham dinners were served. A special thank you to all the volunteers who sold the tickets, prepared the salads, desserts, assembled the takeout meals and to Dorothy Dauphinee who tracked the ticket sales and handled the finances. Thank you, as well, to Grant Cavicchi who provided the ham, Tim Hubley who supplied the lobsters, Barry Corkum and staff at our local Superstore who provided all the produce at a significant discount and to the staff at the Shore Club who boiled and split the lobsters.

A profit of over $7500 was realized. Financially this was the most successful parish fundraiser to date.

Brian Bright and John Reid.

On behalf of our parish the following donations have been made:

YOUR ASSISTANCE IS NEEDED

Since our local funeral home closed, sometimes it has been difficult to find information upon the death of parishoners, relatives, neighbours, and friends. To aid in including the names of deceased individuals and their families in our prayers and in the bulletin, please contact Brian Bright when you become aware of any deaths which you think should be included.
