During the twenty-five years since Oshawa became a city, seventeen citizens have occupied the office of Mayor. These seventeen men are picture above. Of these, seven have passed away since they occupied the Mayor's chair, these being the late W. J. Trick, R. D. Preston, T. B. Mitchell, Thomas Hawkes, W. E. N. Sinclair, John Stacey and Alex S. McLeese. One former Mayor, A. G. Davis, has left the city and is now in business in Trenton, Ontario. Another, J. Carroll Anderson, Mayor in 1940 and 1941, has since been appointed county judge for Hastings County, and is located in Belleville. The other eight, H. P. Schell, Ernie Marks, P. A. Macdonald, Alex C. Hall, John A. Coleman, Dr. W. H. Gifford, Frank N. McCallum and the present Mayor, Michael Starr, are still citizens of Oshawa. Under the guidance of these public-spirited men who have been Mayor, Oshawa has shown great progress and development in its forward march as an aggressive and growing city.

Caption: On Monday forenoon, when the inaugural meeting of the 1952 City Council is held, the members of the 1951 council will formally relinquish office, and four of them will retire from the municipal scene, for one year at least. Members of the council who have done good work for Oshawa in 1951, shown above, are as follows: Front, left to right, A. Hayward Murdoch, Mrs. Evelyn Bateman, Finlay M. Dafoe, Mayor Michael Starr, Clifford Harman, and Cephias Gay; back row, left to right, Herbert Robinson, William E. Noble, Harry Benson, W.J. Naylor, Wesley Powers and Rae Halliday. Aldermen Bareman, Dafoe, Noble, and Benson will not be members of the 1952 council.
