TICKETS

Clients must use our Box Office if the event is ticketed (reserved seating). Ticket printing cannot be completed off-site. To ensure that we do not have any school event at our facility where parents are unable to find seats, we will print tickets for your event at .50 cents per ticket. These tickets can then be distributed by the school to parents. We can then ensure that parents have a guaranteed seat.

Rental Guidelines & InformationTICKETS:

- It is a requirement for clients to use our Box Office for ticket services if their event is ticketed. Ticket printing cannot be completed off site.
- Credit Card Fees: There is a 4% surcharge to the rental client on all credit card sales.
- Complimentary Tickets: There is a charge of $2.25 + GST/complimentary ticket. Charges will be applied to the renter's final invoice.

LIQUOR:

- Alcoholic beverages are available for purchase by theatre patrons in the lobby. Our staff is trained in the provincial ProServe Training program for responsible alcohol service.

FRONT OF HOUSE

- Doors to the Audience Chamber open to the public 30 minutes prior to performance time unless otherwise arranged in advance. Any change will affect staff and volunteer schedules and must be made in advance.
- The Theatre's Front of House (FOH) Supervisor must review the emergency evacuation procedure with all of the theatre's volunteer ushers prior to opening doors to the public.
- All stage set up must be completed before the FOH Supervisor will be permitted to open the doors of the Audience Chamber to the public.
- There are 548 seats in the Vic Juba Community Theatre.
- Vic Juba Community Theatre arranges for all ushers, ticket-takers, and bar & concession personnel. The number of personnel required will be determined by the Theatre to ensure appropriate Theatre service levels are maintained.
- If you choose to set up video cameras or adjudicators in the Audience Chamber, this will affect the number of seats available for the event.
- If your booking is for a convention, conference, presentation, graduation ceremony, multi-event booking and/or if we are one facility out of many facilities for your event, please attach a complete schedule or program of events.

BACKSTAGE

- School performers should enter through the outside stage door at the southwest corner of the building next to the loading dock overhead door or the Black Box (if applicable).
- Once the Theatre's doors are open to the public it is recommended that there be no individuals on stage if the curtain is open.
- Vic Juba Community Theatre requires that all school rental groups with performers backstage have adult supervision. One adult per 20 students.
- If there will be 50 or more individuals backstage, additional rooms will be booked at no additional charge.
- At the conclusion of large production involving students, we would like to ensure that the theatre does not exceed our capacity or fire regulations. We would appreciate an announcement that parents wait for their children in the lobby areas rather than going backstage.

TECHNICAL

- The number of personnel required will be determined by the Technical Director to ensure your event's technical needs are met. Unless otherwise arranged, we will use up to 3 technicians for your event. If you require follow-spot operators or load-in and/or load-out crew, the Technical Director will hire additional personnel at an additional charge. If you have any questions with regard to your technical requirements, please contact our Technical Director at andrew@vicjubatheatre.ca.
- Please take into consideration that your rental time will account for all time spent in the Theatre, including any necessary technical set-up (sound and lights) prior to your arrival, load-in, equipment setup, sound check, performance, load-out, and cleanup.
- Note that all pyrotechnics require a licensed pyro-technician who must be approved by and work under the supervision of the Technical Director.
- Vic Juba Community Theatre does not allow open flame, confetti, or streamers anywhere on the premises.
- ADDITIONAL TECHNICIANS are $35 per person per hour*
- *After 8 hours, staffing rates will be charged at 1.5 times the standard rate.

END OF EVENT

- Please remove all sets, costumes, instruments and lobby displays from the Theatre at the end of your booking. Any equipment or sets left will be charged a $500 holding fee, per day will be applied to your final reconciliation.

MISCELLANEOUS

- When you arrive at the Theatre, please press the intercom button at the stage door next to the theatre’s loading dock overhead door.
- Vic Juba Community Theatre does not allow any food onstage. Beverages, with the exception of water, are not permitted on our stage. Animals are not permitted on the premises with the exception of guide dogs. Exceptions must be prearranged with management.
- Any signs backstage should be put up with removable adhesive tape or placed on our bulletin boards backstage. All lobby signage must be placed on our portable signage boards or easels. Any signage on the theatre walls or pillars is not permitted. All signage must be removed during your booking time.
- When the renter provides personnel to staff its merchandise table, Vic Juba Community Theatre retains a 15% commission on merchandise sales (before GST). If Vic Juba Community Theatre provides staff for merchandise sales, a 20% commission fee is retained (before GST).
- Our merchandise commission will be assessed on all items that are sold. Includes programs, flowers, CDs and t-shirts. There is no merchandise fee on programs that are distributed at no charge.
- If you are planning any raffles or contests during your event, please contact the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission to obtain the necessary application forms.
- Janitorial services and damages beyond normal wear and tear will be charged back to the rental group.
- GST (5%) will be charged where applicable.

MARKETING

- Please ensure that all marketing and advertising for your event includes the full name of our facility: Vic Juba Community Theatre
- If posters are being printed for your event, please provide the theatre with 2 posters so that we may assist you in marketing your event.
- Advertising of your event should not begin until the Box Office has confirmed with you that your tickets are ready to sell.
- Please email: jason@vicjubatheatre.ca for copies of VJCT logos.
