Waitlist Disclaimer

Submission of this waitlist form does not guarantee child care placement. Waitlist applications are processed in the order in which they are received, based on the original submission date. Please note that priority placement is offered to the following groups: Residents of the Meridian Village Complex, Siblings of children currently enrolled and current Port Coquitlam Daycare Society families. Priority status does not apply to legacy families (families who were previously enrolled but are not current clients at the time of application).

Availability of spaces is dependent on program capacity, age group, licensing requirements, and staffing levels. Families will be contacted as space becomes available.
