COUTTS REUNION

Cancelled for this year.

Due to the unforeseen circumstances around Covid-19 , physical distancing and how Covid can affect people in different ways, bringing family members together is not worth the risk.

Regarding the golf tournament, Tracy is going to have an update at a later date.

Hi All,

We are once again doing Coutts Golf ... Pandemic Style.

Last year, I booked the first weekend of July again in hopes that we would have the Coutts Reunion not realizing at the time of booking it would be the long weekend. The date for golf this year is Saturday July 3rd at Innisbrook Golf Course (Barrie, ON).

Please respond no later than June 15th.

The pandemic rules on the golf course are set out below. They are very similar to last year however this year we are able to mix households if people are comfortable with that. The only provision is that masks must be worn if there are people from different households the same cart. Please let me know who is interested so that I can get everything in order. You can choose to track your game with the Innisbrook App or use a score card.

Innisbrook said they would prefer one payment, which I can make and players can e-transfer me their greens fee before July 3rd to ...

Tee offs start at 9:00am-10:10am on Saturday July 3rd depending on how many people are interested.

PLEASE RESPOND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE VIA EMAIL TO TRACY COUTTS at ...
