Criminal Background Check: as our volunteers will be working with vulnerable populations (e.g., children, the elderly), a criminal background check is required, in compliance with BC legislation aimed at protecting these groups.

Personal Information Protection: Your personal information is being collected for the purpose of processing your volunteer application and will be used for insurance purposes related to volunteer activities, facilitating your involvement with the Friends In Need Food Bank.

By submitting this application, you consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information in accordance with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) for the purpose of volunteer recruitment and management.

Volunteer Agreement: During your volunteer orientation meeting you will be asked to sign the Friends In Need Food Bank Society Volunteer Agreement, stating that you have read and understood the Society's policies and procedures in relation to volunteers.

Volunteer Specific Paperwork: For certain volunteer positions (e.g. Driver), there is additional insurance and policy paperwork to be completed.

Any questions or concerns should be sent to Evan Seal, General Manager, Friends in Need Food Bank: manager@friendsneedfood.com
